TABLE STAKES™ is

SIX HANDED POKER FUN!

HERE'S HOW IT'S PLAYED:

The quarter drops and the cards are dealt 5 apiece. The player and each of the Saloon Gang starts out with 250 chips, and antes up 2. The hands stay hidden as play moves around the table, looking for an opener with Jacks or better. Betting starts and everyone has a chance to call, fold or raise, up to pot limit. Unlimited raises and bluffing strategy build high scoring pots. If you need more "chips" to stay in the game, Black Bart pops up and stakes you to a loan. When the pot is right, it's time to draw. You can draw up to 5 while seeing how many cards each character takes. There's one more betting round and then it's time for the showdown to see who won.

Before the next hand begins you get a chance to "Peek" at everyone's hand, helping you learn each character's style. When the last hand is over, qualifying high scorers get to key in their names. If you borrowed from Bart and are still in a hole, Bart lets you have it . . . BANG! . . . R.I.P.! The biggest losers get to initial their own tombstone on Boot Hill.
